Collect of the Day

O God, whose blessed Son made himself known to his disciples in the breaking of bread: Open the eyes of our faith, that we may behold him in all his redeeming work; who lives and reigns with you, in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God, now and for ever. Amen.

The Readings (The people may sit down.)

First Reading

Acts 2:14a,36-41

But Peter, standing with the eleven, raised his voice and addressed them: "Therefore let the entire house of Israel know with certainty that God has made him both Lord and Messiah, this Jesus whom you crucified." Now when they heard this, they were cut to the heart and said to Peter and to the other apostles, "Brothers, what should we do?" Peter said to them, "Repent, and be baptized every one of you in the name of Jesus Christ so that your sins may be forgiven; and you will receive the gift of the Holy Spirit. For the promise is for you, for your children, and for all who are far away, everyone whom the Lord our God calls to him." And he testified with many other arguments and exhorted them, saying, "Save yourselves from this corrupt generation." So those who welcomed his message were baptized, and that day about three thousand persons were added.

Psalms 116: 1-3, 10-17

- 1 I love the Lord,
because he has heard the voice of my supplication, *
because he has inclined his ear to me whenever I called upon him.
- 2 The cords of death entangled me;
the grip of the grave took hold of me; *
I came to grief and sorrow.
- 3 Then I called upon the Name of the Lord: *
"O Lord, I pray you, save my life."
- 10 How shall I repay the Lord * for all the good things he has done for me?
- 11 I will lift up the cup of salvation *
and call upon the Name of the Lord.
- 12 I will fulfill my vows to the Lord *
in the presence of all his people.
- 13 Precious in the sight of the Lord * is the death of his servants..
- 14 O Lord, I am your servant; *
I am your servant and the child of your handmaid;
you have freed me from my bonds.
- 15 I will offer you the sacrifice of thanksgiving *
and call upon the Name of the Lord.
- 16 I will fulfill my vows to the Lord *
in the presence of all his people,
- 17 In the courts of the Lord's house, *
in the midst of you, O Jerusalem. Hallelujah!

Second Reading

1 Peter 1:17-23

If you invoke as Father the one who judges all people impartially according to their deeds, live in reverent fear during the time of your exile. You know that you were ransomed from the futile ways inherited from your ancestors, not with perishable things like silver or gold, but with the precious blood of Christ, like that of a lamb without defect or blemish. He was destined before the foundation of the world, but was revealed at the end of the ages for your sake. Through him you have come to trust in God, who raised him from the dead and gave him glory, so that your faith and hope are set on God. Now that you have purified your souls by your obedience to the truth so that you have genuine mutual love, love one another deeply from the heart. You have been born anew, not of perishable but of imperishable seed, through the living and enduring word of God.

People Glory to you, Lord Christ.

Now on that same day two of them were going to a village called Emmaus, about seven miles from Jerusalem, and talking with each other about all these things that had happened. While they were talking and discussing, Jesus himself came near and went with them, but their eyes were kept from recognizing him.

And he said to them, "What are you discussing with each other while you walk along?" They stood still, looking sad. Then one of them, whose name was Cleopas, answered him, "Are you the only stranger in Jerusalem who does not know the things that have taken place there in these days?" He asked them, "What things?" They replied, "The things about Jesus of Nazareth, who was a prophet mighty in deed and word before God and all the people, and how our chief priests and leaders handed him over to be condemned to death and crucified him. But we had hoped that he was the one to redeem Israel. Yes, and besides all this, it is now the third day since these things took place. Moreover, some women of our group astounded us. They were at the tomb early this morning, and when they did not find his body there, they came back and told us that they had indeed seen a vision of angels who said that he was alive. Some of those who were with us went to the tomb and found it just as the women had said; but they did not see him."

Then he said to them, "Oh, how foolish you are, and how slow of heart to believe all that the prophets have declared! Was it not necessary that the Messiah should suffer these things and then enter into his glory?" Then beginning with Moses and all the prophets, he interpreted to them the things about himself in all the scriptures.

As they came near the village to which they were going, he walked ahead as if he were going on. But they urged him strongly, saying, "Stay with us, because it is almost evening and the day is now nearly over." So he went in to stay with them.

When he was at the table with them, he took bread, blessed and broke it, and gave it to them. Then their eyes were opened, and they recognized him; and he vanished from their sight. They said to each other, "Were not our hearts burning within us while he was talking to us on the road, while he was opening the scriptures to us?"

That same hour they got up and returned to Jerusalem; and they found the eleven and their companions gathered together. They were saying, "The Lord has risen indeed, and he has appeared to Simon!" Then they told what had happened on the road, and how he had been made known to them in the breaking of the bread.

SAINT JAMES BY-THE-SEA EPISCOPAL CHURCH
La Jolla, California

The Third Sunday of Easter
April 6, 2008, Ten o'clock A.M.

Welcome

to St. James by-the-Sea on this special day as we are honored to have our Presiding Bishop, the Most. Rev. Katharine Jefferts Schori as friend, celebrant and preacher. We are so thankful to include her in this gathering of St. James today.

In company with her on her travel to San Diego are her husband, Richard Schori and members of her staff: Miguel Escobar and Robert Williams.

While it happens more frequently it is no less an honor for us to welcome the Bishop of our own Diocese, the Rt. Rev. James Mathes. In company with him today are his wife, Terri Mathes; and colleagues from his staff: the Rev. Canon Jenny Vervynck, Canon Howard Smith and Hannah Miller.

As Bishop Katharine represents our ties to the whole Episcopal Church and the wider Anglican Communion, we are also pleased to welcome guests connected to the wider ministries of the diocese and national church. Their names and roles are listed among the Ministers of the Service.

Please respect the worshipful nature of this gathering by silencing phones and forgoing any photography during the service.

Anthem: There's a wideness in God's mercy

Maurice Bevan (b. 1921)

There's a wideness in God's mercy like the wideness of the sea:
There's a kindness in his justice which is more than liberty.
There is no place where earth's sorrows are more felt than up in heaven:
There is no place where earth's failings have such kindly judgment given.

For the love of God is broader than the measure of man's mind;
And the heart of the eternal is most wonderfully kind.
But we make his love too narrow by false limits of our own;
And we magnify his strictness with a zeal he would not own.

There is plentiful redemption in the blood that has been shed;
There is joy for all the members in the sorrows of the Head.
There is grace enough for thousands of new worlds as great as this;
There is room for fresh creations in that upper home of bliss.

If our love were but more simple, we should take him at this word;
And our lives would be all gladness in the joy of Christ our Lord.

Then they told what had happened on the road, and how he had been made known to them in the breaking of the bread.

Deacon The Gospel of the Lord.
People Praise to you, Lord Christ.

Sermon

The Most Rev. Katharine Jefferts Schori

Nicene Creed

We believe in one God,
the Father, the Almighty,
maker of heaven and earth,
of all that is, seen and unseen.

We believe in one Lord, Jesus Christ,
the only Son of God,
eternally begotten of the Father,
God from God, Light from Light,
true God from true God, begotten, not made,
of one Being with the Father.
Through him all things were made.
For us and for our salvation
he came down from heaven:
by the power of the Holy Spirit
he became incarnate from the Virgin Mary,
and was made man.
For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate;
he suffered death and was buried.
On the third day he rose again
in accordance with the Scriptures;
he ascended into heaven
and is seated at the right hand of the Father.
He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead,
and his kingdom will have no end.

We believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life, who proceeds from the Father and the Son.

With the Father and the Son he is worshiped and glorified.
 He has spoken through the Prophets.
 We believe in one holy catholic and apostolic Church.
 We acknowledge one baptism for the forgiveness of sins.
 We look for the resurrection of the dead,
 and the life of the world to come. Amen.

Prayers of the People

Proclaiming by action as well as word our faith in the resurrection, all who are able remain standing for the prayers.

Intercessor	We pray for the grace of opened eyes and burning hearts as we pray to have our faith and hope set on God. So let us pray: Open our eyes and hearts to your love and grace, and make us a people of peace, justice and hope.
	Holy Lover of this world, we call to mind the ministry we carry on in your Name. Move us and all the faithful into missions merciful and hopeful. Slow us down when temptations to judge others rise. Sustain all your ministers — the baptized, the bishops, the priests and the deacons — in compassion. So let us pray:
People	Open our eyes and hearts to your love and grace, and make us a people of peace, justice and hope.
Intercessor	Holy Savior of the creation, our world is torn between the prophetic vision of peace and our fearful responses that lead to hoarding, chauvinism, and violence. Help us inspire leaders of nations and communities to their highest calling, pour out your wisdom on all who are entrusted with the common good, and bless our nation as a source of blessing to others. So we pray:
People	Open our eyes and hearts to your love and grace, and make us a people of peace, justice and hope.
Intercessor	Holy Physician of the multitudes, we carry in our hearts brothers and sisters who are ill, broken hearted, and despondent. Move as a healing Spirit among them, and enable us to be compassionate friends to all who are in trouble. So we pray:
People	Open our eyes and hearts to your love and grace, and make us a people of peace, justice and hope.
Intercessor	Holy Victor over death, for all the joyful blessings of this life we are never far from the reality of death. Carry all who trust in your Kingdom into the fullness of eternal life, and give us ways to offer resurrection hope to those who grieve. So we pray:
People	Open our eyes and hearts to your love and grace, and make us a people of peace, justice and hope.
Intercessor	Holy Friend to all disciples, we give thanks for the gift of your Spirit, binding us in holy love to all the saints and angels. We give thanks for the blessing of the Church. We rejoice to have had this day to encourage your ministry in Katharine and James and to have had this day in which they have helped us to renew our part in your ministry. So we pray:
Celebrant	Holy and Eternal God, whose will it is that all should come to you through your Son Jesus Christ: Inspire our witness to him, that all may know the power of his forgiveness and the hope of his resurrection; who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, now and for ever. Amen.

Peace

Celebrant	The peace of the Lord be always with you.
People	And also with you.

Welcome from our Rector and greetings from our Bishop.

HOLY COMMUNION

Offertory: "O God, Beyond All Praising"

Richard Proulx (b. 1937)

O God, beyond all praising, we worship you today and sing the love amazing that songs cannot repay; for we can only wonder at every gift you send, at blessings without number and mercies without end: we lift our hearts before you and wait upon your word, we honor and adore you, our great and mighty Lord.

The flower of earthly splendor in time must surely die, its fragile bloom surrender to you, the Lord most high; but hidden from all nature the eternal seed is sown though small immortal stature, to heaven's garden grown: For Christ the man from heaven from death has set us free, and we through him are given the final victory.

Then hear, O gracious Savior, accept the love we bring, that we who know your favor may serve you as our King; and whether our tomorrows be filled with good or ill, we'll triumph through our sorrows and rise to praise you still: to marvel at your beauty and glory in your ways, and make a joyful duty our sacrifice of praise.

Today's "loose plate" (non-pledged) gifts will be shared equally with Episcopal Relief and Development, the worldwide arm of our church to overcome poverty and respond to disasters; and Episcopal Community Services, the local arm of our church which addresses needs and offers dignifying ministry throughout our diocese. Checks may be made out to St. James by-the-Sea. Donations can also be made by credit card using the link at the bottom of our home page: www.stjamesbythesea.org. Thank you for your generous support of the ministry of St. James and of these outstanding ministries.

The people stand while the oblation bearers, today representing our church, diocese, and wider communion, bring offerings of bread, wine and money are brought to the Altar.

Presentation Hymn

Lasst uns erfreuen

Praise God, from whom all blessings flow; praise him, all creatures here be - low; Al-lelu - ia! Al-le - lu-ia! Praise him a-bove, ye heaven-ly host; praise Fa-ther, Son, and Ho-ly Ghost. Al-le - lu - ia! Al-le lu - ia! Al-le - lu - ia! Al-le - lu - ia! Al-le - lu - ia!

Great Thanksgiving

The people remain standing.

Celebrant The Lord be with you.

People And also with you.

Celebrant Lift up your hearts.

People We lift them to the Lord.

Celebrant Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.

People It is right to give our thanks and praise.

The Celebrant continues

It is truly right, and good and joyful, to give you thanks, all-holy God, source of life and fountain of mercy. But chiefly are we bound to praise you for the glorious resurrection of your Son Jesus Christ our Lord; for he is the true Paschal Lamb, who was sacrificed for us, and has taken away the sin of the world. By his death he has destroyed death, and by his rising to life again he has won for us everlasting life.

Therefore, joining with Angels and Archangels and with the faithful of every generation, we lift our voices with all creation as we sing:

Celebrant and People

Sanctus, Malcolm Archer (b. 1952)

Ho - ly, Ho - ly, Ho - ly Lord, God of pow-er and might, hea - ven and earth are full of your glo - ry, Ho - san - na in the high - est.
Bles-sed is he who comes in the name of the Lord, the name of the Lord. Ho - san na in the high est, ho san - na in the high - est.

The Celebrant continues

Blessed are you, gracious God, creator of the universe and giver of life.
You formed us in your own image and called us to dwell in your infinite love.
You gave the world into our care that we might be your faithful stewards and show forth your bountiful grace.
But we failed to honor your image in one another and in ourselves;
we would not see your goodness in the world around us;
and so we violated your creation, abused one another, and rejected your love.

Yet you never ceased to care for us,
and prepared the way of salvation for all people.
Through Abraham and Sarah you called us into covenant with you.
You delivered us from slavery, sustained us in the wilderness,
and raised up prophets to renew your promise of salvation.
Then, in the fullness of time, you sent your eternal Word, made mortal flesh in Jesus.
Born into the human family, and dwelling among us,
he revealed your glory.
Giving himself freely to death on the cross, he triumphed over evil, opening the way of freedom and life.

On the night before he died for us, Our Savior Jesus Christ took bread, and when he had given thanks to you, he broke it, and gave it to his friends, and said:
"Take, eat: This is my Body which is given for you.
Do this for the remembrance of me."

Fraction Anthem: Agnus Dei

Archer

Lamb of God, you take a-way the sins of the world; have mer - cy up - on us. Lamb of God, you take a-way the sins of the world, have mer-cy up on us. Lamb of God, you take a-way the sins of the world: grant us your peace.

All the faithful who seek communion with Christ and his Body are welcome at this table.

Communion Anthems and Music

Sonata in G major: Allegretto

C. P. E. Bach

Come, Walk With Me

Michael McCabe (b. 1939)

Come, walk with me to Emmaus. Find the road so peaceful in beauty, Hear the questions, alarming in the silence. Come, walk with me to Emmaus. Come, recall with me on the way to Emmaus, days of wonder, filled with joy. Then he was nailed to the cross... I dare not speak the words. Come, recall with me on the way to Emmaus. Come, share with me the feast at Emmaus. Break the bread and drink the wine. It is my Lord, his presence made known to me. Come, go out with me from Emmaus to carry the good news to all the people. Your love is with me, your spirit shown to me. Come, go out with me from Emmaus. Come with me.

Postcommunion Prayer

The People stand. The Celebrant says

Let us pray.

Celebrant and People

Loving God,
 we give you thanks for restoring us in your image and nourishing us with spiritual food in the Sacrament of Christ's Body and Blood.
 Now send us forth a people, forgiven, healed, renewed;
 that we may proclaim your love to the world and continue in the risen life of Christ our Savior. Amen.

Blessing

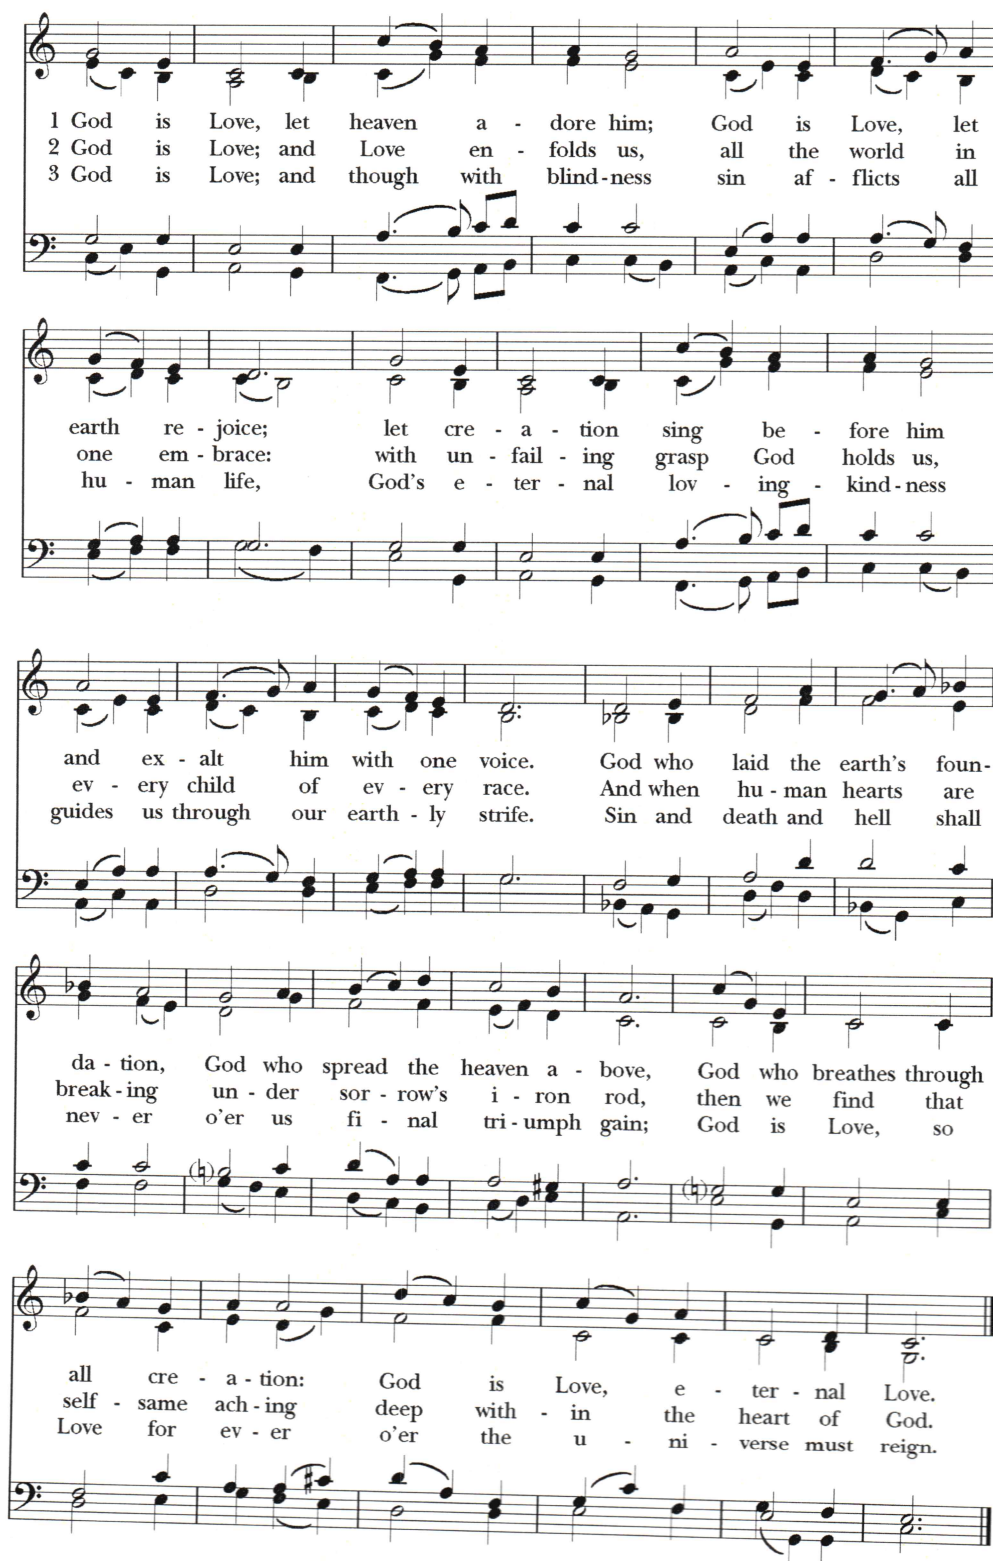

The Presiding Bishop offers a blessing for the people.

Dismissal

Deacon Alleluia, alleluia. Let us go forth in the name of Christ.
 People Thanks be to God. Alleluia, alleluia.

Processional Voluntary Festival Postlude

Vinzenz Goller (1873-1953)

The People join the procession from the church, following the cross into the world.

Please come to the patio after the service for conversation with one another, with our Bishop, and with our friends from the wider community of the Church.

If this is the first time you have been part of St. James, please look for one of the greeters or clergy to help you with introductions and to learn more about our church and ministry.

St. James by-the-Sea has four vehicles for publishing news and information:

"The Chimes" is our monthly mailed newsletter of articles, events, and information on the life and times of our church members and programs.

"Sea Breeze" is our weekly publication of announcements, handed out at Sunday Services or available by mail on request.

Our Web Page is a full encyclopedia of information about our church and ministry, including forms for registering for baptism or weddings. It includes archives of several months worth of "The Chimes" and "Sea Breeze" and links to other areas of interest and information about the church and our outreach ministries. We often publish the texts and recorded audio of the week's sermons.

Finally, the E-News is our weekly subscription service, providing up to the minute details and breaking announcements.

Any or all can be requested through the web page, www.StJamesbytheSea.org; or by telephone to 858.459.3421 to Chris McCormack at extension 107.
